

ADULT ARTIST RETREAT

Explore, or renew, your artistic abilities at this one-of-a-kind experience just for adults. K12/TEJAS is offering two workshops specifically for the needs of an adult artist, educator, interested parent, or art enthusiast. You will grow your own skills alongside professional artists. You will also visit local art studios, galleries, and downtown eateries. This is a chance to renew your artistic edge with people of likeminded goals!

June 27-July 1

Urban Landscape Painting

If you are a painter, or wish to be, come spend time enhancing your skills! Working directly from the Dayton skyline begins each day of this workshop. Students will work on a large canvas to create a landscape or cityscape painting using acrylic paint. In the afternoon, you will work on a small scale painting inside the TEJAS studio using acrylic or oil paint.

9:30am-11:30am: En plein air painting Instructor: Jerri Stanard

11:00-1:30 Lunch at at downtown eatery

1:00pm-3:30pm: Inside TEJAS painting Instructor: Scott Gibbs

July 25-July 29

Pottery Throwing and Hand Building

Pottery making is a skill that many aspire to possess, but seldom have the time to pursue. Here is your chance to work in an environment where equipment and artistic know how converge to give you that opportunity. You will learn to develop your skills on the potter's wheel in the morning session. You will practice centering clay on the wheel and will create a variety of pots in various sizes. You will learn hand building techniques and will make a unique piece designed and executed exclusively by you! You will be the envy of your group when you can display your own work in your home!

9:30am-11:30am: Work at the potter's wheel Instructor: Steven Powers

11:30-1:00 Lunach at a downtown eatery

1:00pm-3:30pm: Hand Building Instructor: Erin Lambers

All classes will have an option to earn CEU's through the University of Dayton at a cost of $125 per class. All classes must be taken in their entirety to be eligible for this credit.
